Fundraising resources

Item	Description	How to order
ID card and lanyard	A branded lanyard and ID card signed off by the Events team with your personal details to authorise you to fundraise 'in aid of' Cats Protection.	Included in your registration pack.
'I am fundraising for 'Cats Protection' blue polo shirt – if applicable to your minimum sponsorship pledge – over £500	For you to wear during any public facing fundraising so people can easily identify that you are fundraising 'in aid of' Cats Protection	Included in your registration pack if applicable.
Technical running or cycling tops – if applicable to your event	For you to wear while training and on event day.	Included in your registration pack if applicable.
'Sponsor me' poster and jpegs	See examples attached to your email – we can create personalised ones with your page links and information.	We will create these for you after you have set up your online fundraising page and populated the 'story'. We can also add a text to donate number if you create one from the fundraising page.
Counter top collection boxes and log sheet	For putting out and about in local organisations, shops and businesses for people to donate to support your fundraising – usually work well with one of the 'sponsor me' posters.	On request via email or phone – just let us know how many you would like.
Bunting, table cloths, balloons, car stickers, blue bugs	If you organise any events or stalls such as a bingo night, craft stall, bake sale etc we can provide you with branded resources, or they can possibly be borrowed from the branch or centre you are supporting.	On request via email or phone – just let us know how many you would like and by when and the best delivery address – please allow up to two weeks to receive these.
A4 double-sided sponsor form and 20 sponsorship tips	These paper-based documents will give you ideas and allow you to collect offline sponsorship donations. (It is worth ordering a collection box above to securely take these offline donations).	Included in your registration pack (re-prints available).
Blank fundraising planner and example fundraising planner	These resources will help you plot your fundraising plan for the coming months until the date of your challenge.	Included in your registration pack (re-prints available).
Cat masks	Plain white cat masks that can be coloured in – can be given away or used as a colouring competition to raise funds – 50p and entry perhaps.	On request via email or phone – just let us know how many you would like and by when and the best delivery address – please allow up to two weeks to receive these.
