Our Branch has been actively helping cats in the Truro area since 1984

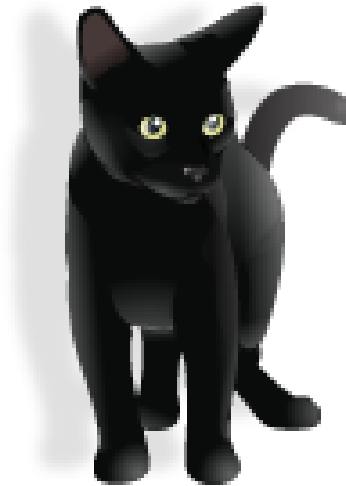

If you think you might like to help cats by volunteering we would love to hear from you. We work as a supportive and enthusiastic group who enjoy what we do to help local cats. There is something for everyone.

Come and join us and find out what it feels like to make a difference

Getting close to cats

There are several ways you could help cats and kittens in our care. Here are just some ways:

- Foster cats in your own home. For suitable situations we fund a purpose built cattery pen. The pen is constructed in the fosterer's garden. The fosterer cares for the cat whilst the Branch seeks a suitable happy home for the cat. All food, litter, equipment and vet bills are funded by the Branch. You will have the pleasure and reward of caring for a cat/kitten that has sadly become homeless.
- Socialising kittens in your own home. We sometimes have young kittens that need to be in a family environment to learn about domestic life. We provide all the equipment and consumables.
- Providing support for our volunteer fosterers. Helping from the moment the cat comes in to our care, or helping with the adoption process.

Helping cats in other ways

Transport

- Be a feline chauffeur and take cats to the vet or their new home
- Collect goods for our charity shop
- Help deliver and set up goods at our fundraising or awareness events

Like working with people?

- Visit the home of prospective cat adopters to help match the right cat to the right home
- Help with volunteer recruitment
- Volunteer in our charity shop in Truro

Communication

- Compile our quarterly printed newsletter. We have 200 members who love to read our newsletter.
- Organise press releases to promote our campaigns and events and help particularly needy cats.

Campaigns and events

- Work as part of a group of volunteers organising fun events to spread the word and help raise funds towards our cat work
